

General remarks:

- Preferred imaging technique for Covid-19: (low-dose) chest CT
- CT should not be used as a diagnostic test to replace PCR testing
- CT should not be used in asymptomatic persons
- When CT is used in specific indications for 'triage', this should always be followed by PCR testing
- Radiologists should be actively involved in multidisciplinary teams that decide on workflow of Covid-19 patients

